

ANTI-BULLYING MAGIC SHOW
Ryan Broadfoot MSW

(1) KINDNESS SCALE

A hero is a kind person who stops something bad from happening to another person. And you can be a hero if you choose.

There are a lot of students here with a lot of kindness. An act of kindness can be very powerful.

(2) DOVE FROM EMPTY BLACK SILK

An act of kindness can bring some good out of a bad situation.

If most of the students here are okay with bullying, then it's more likely to happen and you are at greater risk of being bullied yourself.

(3) CHAIN & HANDCUFF ESCAPE

Kids who are bullied feel like they are locked up, because they feel like they'll never get free of the bullying. You can use the key to help free them from bullying.

(4) IMAGE OF A KEY INSTANTLY APPEARS ON A BLANK SILK

Everyone can use the key.
Be kind to the person being bullied.
Exit, don't watch, don't laugh, walk away.
You tell an adult. Don't count on someone else to tell an adult.

(5) TUG OF WAR – TEACHERS VS. STUDENTS

Bullying is hurtful, it's on purpose, it's repeated, but most importantly the person bullying has more power.

(6) PUPPET COSTUME

It's natural to get upset and to want to hurt someone who is hurting you or your friend. But it's not the best way to help stop bullying. Don't fight back, just be kind to the person being bullied and tell an adult.

(7) FLOATING BOX

If you use the key to help stop bullying from happening, then you become a hero. A super hero has a power that nobody else has. And when you see bullying, only you can use the key. Not a teacher, not your parents, only you can be kind, only you can walk away, only you can tell an adult.
